

Terraform Question #71

QUESTION:

Your security team scanned some Terraform workspaces and found secrets stored in a plaintext in state files.

How can you protect sensitive data stored in Terraform state files?

A.

Delete the state file every time you run Terraform

B.

Store the state in an encrypted backend

Most Voted

C.

Edit your state file to scrub out the sensitive data

D.

Always store your secrets in a secrets.tfvars file.

Show Suggested Answer

Hide Answer

Suggested Answer:

B

Community vote distribution

B (85%)

D (15%)

B (20%)

Other

ANSWERS:

CORRECT ANSWER(S):

- B